

You're a Fucking Terrorist

You got an open state of mind
You're a fucking terrorist
If you stepping outta line
You're a fucking terrorist
You got drugs in your spot
You're a fucking terrorist
If you don't trust the cops
You're a fucking' terrorist

Now, let me tell you something' just incase you didn't know
Anyone can be a terrorist if they've decided so
I feel confident in making this single promise to you
Somewhere there is a law against something you do

The racist classist fascist trap catches all who disagree
Faceless talon of the growing beast scratch everything you see
Careful what you say and how you pray and what you read
Cause you could be a scapegoat or a casualty of greed
And you'll be hella dead before your ever fucking freed
And the witch-hunt will proceed so that no one wants to lead

Alternative points and views will be silenced with fear and violence
Conveniently labeled terrorists detained or deported
To save yourself you'll be forced to be reporting them
If you refuse to do so then they'll say that your supporting' them

People scared and confused forced to choose what's more important to them
Moral ethics or the love of your family
They can choose to accuse randomly
While they speak candidly about home security
The codeword for ideological purity

They got a perfect recipe one-part deception one-part division
21st century McCarthyism

You don't believe what they say
You're a fucking terrorist
You pray six times a day
You're a fucking terrorist
You don't believe Iraq was freed
You're a fucking' terrorist

You just bought a sack of weed
You're a fucking terrorist

Now let me tell you something' just incase you didn't know
Anyone can be a terrorist if they've decided so
I feel confident in making this single promise to you
Somewhere there is a law against something you do

They did this shit before during the Russian cold war
Accusing innocent people of Communist sentiment
Central intelligence in your residence
Accusations without evidence
The difference is that now they made it legal

If you think for yourself you'd best to fear for your health
White men in black suits are tapping your phone
They can incarcerate you and repossess what your own
The emperor sends his decrees from the throne

A new of McCarthyism the previous one is hard to compare to this
In the name of national security they'll dub you a terrorist
And just so no one comes in contact with your views
They'll discredit you on the six o'clock news

A new world order is forming using fear as a tool
The vampires are swarming greedily they drool
Ready to suck, they don't give a fuck
You with them or you with us
In corporate media they trust
Leaving critical thinkers crushed

You don't trust the news?
You're a fucking terrorist
You got different points and views?
You're a fucking terrorist
Ain't got no flag on your car?
You're a fucking terrorist
Is your skin black as tar?
You're a fucking terrorist
You don't believe in Jesus Christ?
You're a fucking terrorist
Or Condeleeza Rice?
You're a fucking terrorist
Are you from the Middle East?
You're a fucking terrorist
Do you believe in peace?

You're a fucking terrorist
You didn't vote for George Bush?
You're a fucking terrorist
You just smoked a sack of Kush?
You're a fucking terrorist
Oh you don't support the war?
You're a fucking terrorist
You watch films by Michael Moore?
You're a fucking terrorist

They spill blood for oil?
They're the fucking terrorists
They wage war on foreign soil
They're the fucking terrorists
They only see in black and white
They're the fucking terrorists
They take away our civil rights
They're fucking terrorists
